

Speakers:

Prof. Dr. Davor Babić, LL.M. - Associate Professor at the Private International Law Department, Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb. His academic interests are related to private international law, international arbitration, international investment law and alternative dispute resolution. Prof. Dr. Davor Babić headed the working group for Chapter 6 (EU Company Law) in Croatia's accession negotiations with the European Union. He served as the Secretary of the Permanent Arbitration Court at the Croatian Chamber of Commerce. He is active as an arbitrator in commercial cases before various regional and international arbitral institutions. He is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR.

Emilia Fronczak LL.M., Associate at Loyens & Loeff Luxembourg and lecturer in the field of Private International Law at the Centre Européen Universitaire in Nancy, France. Previously legal secretary at the Court of Justice of the European Union. Author of publications in the field of State Aid law.

Prof. Dr. Bettina Heiderhoff - since 2013 professor for Private International Law, Transnational Litigation and for German Civil Law at the University of Münster, Germany. She also is director of the Institute for German and International Family Law and Co-director of the Centre for European Private Law (CEP). From 2006 until 2013 she held a chair at Hamburg University. She took her qualifications at Leipzig University and is specialised in EU Consumer Law, German and International Procedural Law and in Family Law. She is the founder and coordinator of PEPP.

Joanna Kolber is admitted to the Brussels bar and works in the litigation and arbitration department of Strelia (Brussels). Her areas of practice cover diverse commercial disputes, with a particular focus on international trade and services law matters. She also specializes in private international law. Joanna Kolber is a member of the CEPANI<sup>40</sup> Steering Committee.

Matthias L. Kuscher specialises in international arbitration and cross-border litigation, with a particular emphasis on complex multi-jurisdictional disputes. Since joining De Brauw's litigation and arbitration team as a Senior Associate in 2012, Matthias has acted as counsel in and advised on numerous large-scale international arbitrations and mediations in the fields of energy, infrastructure, construction, M&A and intellectual property. He is particularly experienced in arbitrations conducted under the rules of the ICC, ICSID, UNCITRAL, DIS, VIAC and Swiss Chambers. Prior to joining De Brauw, Matthias was Legal Counsel to the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) in The Hague and established and headed the PCA's first diplomatic mission as the inaugural PCA Representative in Mauritius. Before that, Matthias was the Counsel in charge of the United Kingdom and Commonwealth case management team at the ICC International Court of Arbitration in Paris, where he supervised around 200 arbitrations at any one time and scrutinised numerous arbitral awards.

Matthias was educated at Cambridge (B.A., M.A. in Law – First Class), Oxford (B.C.L. – Distinction) and Heidelberg (LL.M. – Sehr Gut). He speaks English, German, French and Dutch.

Dr. Paolo Michele Patocchi is one of the founding partners of Patocchi & Marzolini, a law firm specialising in international arbitration and litigation, established with Paolo Marzolini on 1 January 2014. Michele acts as counsel and sits as an arbitrator in Switzerland and a number of European jurisdictions under various arbitration rules, or in ICSID arbitration, in cases conducted in English, French, German or Italian.

Prof. Dr. Monika Pauknerová is a professor of Private International Law and International Business Law at the Department of Commercial Law, Faculty of Law, Charles University in Prague. Her fields of interest and research are private international law, including European private (international) law, international commercial and business law, comparative law.

Dr. Wojciech Sadowski, PhD is an advocate, member of the Dispute Resolution team in the Warsaw office of K&L Gates, and the global international arbitration practice of the firm. He concentrates on international and/or trans-border matters. Dr. Sadowski has extensive experience in arbitration proceedings under international investment agreements. As part of the international K&L Gates practice, he has been acting for both investors and states in that respect.

Dr. Sadowski is also involved, as counsel or arbitrator, in commercial arbitrations. He also represents clients in court cases in civil and/or commercial matters. He has experience in disputes relating to construction, infrastructure, real estate, finance, intellectual property, the energy sector, telecoms, mining and metals, pharmaceutical, outsourcing, hypermarket chains, shareholders' agreements and unfair market practices.

Wojciech Sadowski holds a PhD in legal studies and is the author or co-author of more than 30 articles and books on international and trans-border dispute resolution. Since 2008 he has been consistently ranked as one of the leading dispute resolution lawyers in Poland.

Dr. Maxi Scherer is a special counsel in WilmerHale's Litigation/Controversy Department, and a member of the International Arbitration Practice Group. She is a distinguished academic, holding positions at various international law schools. She is a full-time tenured faculty member at Queen Mary, University of London and has received visiting appointments, including at the NYU School of Law, University of Paris 1 Sorbonne, Georgetown Centre for Commercial Legal Studies, University of Melbourne and SciencesPo Law School, Paris.

Prof. Dr. Marek Safjan - Professor of Law; former President (1998-2006) of the Polish Constitutional Court; Vice-President (since 2010) of the International Academy of Comparative Law; author of a very large number of publications in the fields of civil law, medical law and European law; Judge at the Court of Justice of European Union (since 2009).

Dr. Maciej Szpunar, LL.M. - Professor at the University of Silesia; former Undersecretary of State in the Office of the Committee for European Integration (2008-09), then in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (2010-13); member of the International Academy of Comparative Law; author of a large number of publications in the fields of European law and Private International Law, Advocate General at the Court of Justice of European Union (since 2013).

Prof. Dr. Vladimir Pavić, LL.B (Belgrade), LL.M, S.J.D. (CEU)– Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Belgrade where he teaches Private International Law, Arbitration, Investment Protection and Competition Law. Former Vice-President of the Permanent Court of Arbitration attached to the Serbian Chamber of Commerce and current Vice-President of the Belgrade Arbitration Centre (BAC). Since 2009 he has been member of the State Council (of the Republic of Serbia) for Private International Law, since 2013 listed in the GAR's Who is Who in International Commercial Arbitration, and since 2015 a member of the International Advisory Board of the Vienna International Arbitration Center (VIAC). Prof. Pavić's experience includes participation in both commercial and investment arbitrations in various roles (arbitrator, counsel, expert witness).

Dr. Maciej Zachariasiewicz, LL.M. – Lecturer in the Civil Law Department at the Koźmiński University Law School and a lawyer practicing with the ADP Popiołek Adwokaci i Doradcy law firm. His academic interests are related to international commercial arbitration, private international and comparative law. Since 2014 he has been a member of the Arbitration Committee of the Lewiatan Court of Arbitration.

Dr. Grzegorz Żmij, LL.M. – Associate professor and Director of the Research Centre for the European Private Law at the Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Silesia, Katowice, Poland. He has been involved as counsel, party-appointed arbitrator, sole arbitrator or chairman in various arbitrations. Since 2011, Grzegorz Żmij has been Vice-President of the Court of Arbitration at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Katowice. He is a legal adviser, partner at BLZ Żmij &

Partners Legal Advisers and a member of the Board of the Chamber of Legal Advisers in Katowice.